Thank you for reaching out Josh,

As you know the board and management were very thorough when it came to choosing the right contractor for our restoration and painting project and it appears that the decision was spot on thus far. We had high expectations based on Suncoast's reputation and presentation to the board. Although construction is never perfect and has its challenges, you have met our expectations and in the areas of communication, diligence, and work product, you have exceeded our expectations.

We truly appreciate all the hard work you and your men have done for us so far and look forward to continuing a great professional relationship throughout the remainder of the project and beyond.
